

Last Date: 23/09/2026

1. What is one way to prepare well for a meeting with a supervisor?

- Correct Answer: (b) Send your supervisor a brief agenda in advance
- Page/Slide Number: Page 10 (Lecture 1, Slide 10)
- Slide Heading: Setting up regular meetings and feedback sessions
- Grounding: The lecture recommends using meeting agendas to keep discussions focused and organized.

2. Which practice supports trust in a mentor-student relationship?

- Correct Answer: (d) Meeting deadlines and being honest about delays
- Page/Slide Number: Page 18–19 (Lecture 1, Slides 18–19)
- Slide Heading: Defining research objectives and timelines / Clarifying roles and responsibilities
- Grounding: The lecture emphasizes realistic timelines, accountability, and reporting progress.

3. Why is it important to ask clarifying questions of a supervisor?

- Correct Answer: (b) To confirm that you understand the task correctly
- Page/Slide Number: Page 107 (Lecture 4, Slide 16)
- Slide Heading: Strategies for effective cross-cultural communication
- Grounding: The lecture recommends confirming understanding by paraphrasing or asking clarifying questions.

4. Which of the following best describes a respectful mentor-student dynamic?

- Correct Answer: (a) Both parties respect time, boundaries, and communication norms
- Page/Slide Number: Page 29 (Lecture 1, Slide 29)
- Slide Heading: Promoting mutual respect and professionalism
- Grounding: The lecture highlights respect for time and clear professional boundaries.

5. What is most likely to weaken a supervisory relationship?

- Correct Answer: (c) Repeatedly missing deadlines without explanation
- Page/Slide Number: Page 13–14 (Lecture 1, Slides 13–14)
- Slide Heading: Identifying sources of conflict / Addressing concerns early and professionally
- Grounding: The lecture identifies misaligned timelines and poor communication as sources of conflict.

6. Which message style is most appropriate for official communication with a supervisor?

- Correct Answer: (d) Polite, clear, and professional in tone
- Page/Slide Number: Page 14 (Lecture 1, Slide 14)
- Slide Heading: Addressing concerns early and professionally
- Grounding: The lecture recommends using a respectful and neutral tone in academic communication.

7. What is a sign of a healthy academic relationship with a mentor?

- Correct Answer: (b) Both parties respect each other's time and boundaries
- Page/Slide Number: Page 29 (Lecture 1, Slide 29)
- Slide Heading: Promoting mutual respect and professionalism
- Grounding: The lecture describes mutual respect and clear professional boundaries as important practices.

8. Which of the following is helpful when you feel confused about your supervisor's instructions?

- Correct Answer: (a) Ask for examples or clarification politely
- Page/Slide Number: Page 107 (Lecture 4, Slide 16)
- Slide Heading: Strategies for effective cross-cultural communication
- Grounding: The lecture recommends asking clarifying questions to confirm understanding and prevent misunderstandings.

9. Why is it important to be honest about your workload with a supervisor?

- Correct Answer: (b) It helps them suggest realistic timelines and priorities
- Page/Slide Number: Page 11 (Lecture 1, Slide 11)
- Slide Heading: Encouraging honest discussions about expectations
- Grounding: The lecture recommends discussing timelines and workload openly to improve clarity and reduce stress.

10. Which behavior shows respect for a mentor's expertise?

- Correct Answer: (c) Listening carefully and considering their advice
- Page/Slide Number: Page 9 (Lecture 1, Slide 9)
- Slide Heading: Active listening and understanding student concerns
- Grounding: The lecture explains that active listening helps build rapport, understanding, and a stronger working relationship.

Summary

1. B – Send your supervisor a brief agenda in advance.
2. D – Meeting deadlines and being honest about delays.
3. B – Confirm that you understand the task correctly.
4. A – Both parties respect time, boundaries, and communication norms.
5. C – Repeatedly missing deadlines without explanation.
6. D – Polite, clear, and professional in tone.
7. B – Both parties respect each other's time and boundaries.
8. A – Ask for examples or clarification politely.
9. B – It helps them suggest realistic timelines and priorities.
10. C – Listening carefully and considering their advice.